Objectives

I would like the opportunity to apply my skills in multimedia production, 3D animation, and programming to pursue a career in e-learning development. Over the past year, my personal area of study has been e-learning design and development. I want to apply those skills to help organizations provide effective learning environments and activity-based training in a variety of subject matter areas.

Joshua A. Rice

4806 Seville Dr.
Pasco, WA 99301
(509) 554-0110

josh@joshricedesign.com

JoshRiceDesign.com

Education

Eastern Washington University, Cheney, WA
Major: Visual Communication Design, BA
Minor: 3D Animation
Graduation Date: June 2012
Course Work: 3D Modeling and Animation, Interactive Web Design, Digital Photography, Sound Design, Design Theory, Computer Graphics, Typography, Electronic Prepress, Technical Drawing, Basic Java, Content Management Systems

Software

Articulate Storyline, Vyond, Adobe Photoshop, Illustrator, InDesign, Audition, HTML5 and CSS3, JavaScript, 3DS Max, Microsoft Office

Work Experience

Pacific Office Automation, Graphic Designer, Kennewick, WA, 2016 - present
Duties: Print and manufacture several products for Mission Support Alliance and Bechtel, including training manuals, booklets, posters, and a variety of signage.

Bettendorf's Printing and Design LLC, Graphic Designer, Kennewick, WA, 2015 - 2016
Duties: Designed a variety of print media, including flyers, business cards, brochures, posters, and assorted products for Kadlec Regional Medical Center. Managed and worked with large scale print machines.

KNDU-TV, Production Assistant/Website Manager, Kennewick, WA, 2012 - 2015
Duties: Served as director of live broadcasts; served as floor manager, which included editing video, audio and graphics, and operating cameras during live newscasts. Managed and designed a variety of different clients' advertisements for web; create reports based on page views from users, maintained and organized overall website, including creating pages for special events and news coverage, as well as creating live web streams. I also help to maintain our social media presence.

Battelle, Pacific Northwest National Laboratory, Intern, Richland, WA, Summer 2009
Duties: Worked on a variety of projects, including design and implementation of an interface for a visual analytics demonstration, multimedia development for cyber security e-learning courses, video editing, and graphics redesign and development.

Interests and Activities

3D modeling and animation
Photography
Music and audio editing
Various Church activities

References

Available upon request